Becoming a Reseller

Why Become a Joker.com Reseller?

Without a doubt, there are plenty of compelling reasons to join our reseller program. Let's explore the exciting advantages you can enjoy:

- Discounts: As a Joker.com reseller, you'll receive discounts on all domain transactions. You'll start with a 20% discount, which can increase up to 40% based on your activities. Saving money while expanding your business is a win-win situation!
- User-Friendly Interface: Gain access to the Reseller Control Panel (rpanel.io), an alternative web interface designed specifically for resellers. This powerful tool simplifies domain management, allowing you to effortlessly handle even large volumes of domains and contacts. Real-time data presentation eliminates the need for time-consuming form submissions.
- Test and Tryout System: Explore Joker.com's registration and domain manipulation methods without affecting real data. The OT&E system provides virtual domains and registries, enabling resellers to experiment and test various functionalities. You can experiment fearlessly, honing your skills and gaining confidence.
- Seamless Integration: Our HTTP-based API makes scripting and integration into your existing solutions a breeze. Automate processes and streamline your workflow with ease.
- Convenient API and Email Gateway: Register domains effortlessly by sending commands via email using PGP-signed emails. Our user-friendly API and email gateway simplify the domain registration process, ensuring a hassle-free experience.
- Integration Modules for Hosting Solutions: If your business utilizes hosting solutions like WHMCS, Clientexec, or Hostbill, consider automating your domain needs with our integration modules. These modules facilitate domain registration, renewal, billing, and maintenance, seamlessly integrating them into your existing business solution. Installation requires only a few simple steps, if necessary at all.

Who Can Become a Reseller?

Whether you're an individual or a company, you are eligible to become a Joker.com reseller. If you have five domains or more, it's definitely worth considering the reseller opportunity.

Is There a Fee for Becoming a Reseller?

No, becoming a Joker.com reseller is absolutely free. However, as a reseller, you'll need to fund your Joker.com account in advance (pre-payment). The amount you decide to fund is entirely up to you. Each time you place an order, the corresponding amount will be deducted from your account. This feature ensures reliable auto-renewals if you choose to utilize it.

What is the Minimum Funding Amount to Become a Reseller?

Currently, there is no minimum funding requirement for your reseller account. Your discount will be based on the revenue you generated in the past, allowing you the flexibility to grow at your own pace.
