What is a 'Redemption Grace Period' (RGP)?

The Redemption Grace Period (RGP)

Most gTLD domains - this means domains under ICANN regulation - do know a special status: Redemption Grace Period, often referred to as "RGP".

What does this mean?

A domain usually will be deleted for two reasons:

- explicit request from the customer
- domain is not renewed and therefore has expired

A domain will not be deleted immediately from the database of the registry. Instead, for up to 30 days following the deletion, the domain can not be registered again, but the registrar responsible for the domain has the option to "reanimate" (restore) the domain again on behalf of the registrant.

This option is intended to salvage rather rare cases of renewal problems, before the final deletion of a domain.

Important: Please note that Joker.com does additionally add a grace period of up to 30 days for expired domains. This means, that for regular expired domains, the 30 days of the "Redemption Grace Period" will start after the 30 days of Joker.com's grace period.

This is also depends on the type of domain, and the registry operating the domain.

A domain name which is in Redemption still can be restored ("re-registered"), using either the Redemption Restore Procedure to restore your domain, or by browsing the pool of all available domains in RGP.

Since most registries define this to be a special procedure, this usually also has a different price tag.

The pricing differs depending on the type of domain, please have a look into the price list.

1.8 Renewals

Please also note: After a successful restore of a domain name from RGP, a transfer to another registrar is not possible for another 30 days.

After 30 days in RGP, the status of the domain will change to "pending delete" for 5 days. During these 5 days, a restore is not possible any more.

On the 6th day after the deletion, the domain is available to be registered again.

To provide fair conditions for all, the exact time for when a new registration is possible is randomly chosen.

Please find out more about a domain's life cycle.

However, please note that before Joker.com deletes a domain, the responsible contacts of this domain will be notified several times by email. Please find the exact scheme of notifications in ERRP - Expired Registration Recovery Policy.
